

Tours of Church Interiors

The agency provides guided tours with expert commentaries in churches or monasteries, including interiors.

Tours of church interiors The agency provides guided tours with expert commentaries in churches or monasteries, including interiors that are not commonly open to the public, on the basis of the client's specific request. The tour and commentary are conducted by an art historian, historian, professional guide or representative of the site in English, French or German.